Kristy Pack, a long-time North Ogden resident owns and operates Pack Tax. She, her husband, and five children love the family-oriented community of North Ogden. Her business is family-friendly as well and she invites clients to bring their children to their appointment, as she has a wonderful playroom for them to enjoy.

Pack Tax is new to North Ogden but not new to doing taxes. Kristie has experience doing over 12,000 returns. Their prices are truly “small town” affordable and they stand behind their work without the additional charge that you find at the national chains or big city offices. Pack Tax also handles questions and things that pop-up during the year without charge.

They sponsor activities and support fundraisers at Majestic Elementary, Orion Jr. High, and Weber High School. They are involved in and help to sponsor the Weber High plays each year. They are actively involved in the Ogden-Weber Chamber of Commerce. Kristy’s office is also certified by Youth Futures as a “safe place” where youth who are in danger, runaway, or at-risk can find shelter.
